

Link fittings

Link fittings are used to link clamps to insulator string or connect the string and ground wire clamp to supporting structure Link fittings including ball eyes, socket eye, ball clevis, anchor shackle, arcing horn, u bolt, yoke plate, adjusting plate, turnbuckle and etc, shall be made of hot rolled steel and obtained preferably by process of forging

For additional specifications please contact our customer service.