

Tension clamp

The tension strain clamp is used for fixing conducting wires and lightning rods on nonlinear pole tower of aerial electric lines Tension clamps for all ACSR conductors shall be of the compression type and bolt type

For additional specifications please contact our customer service.